THINK LATINO!

There is a wisdom in martial arts that can inspire the most beautiful thinking.

We want to honor it with a short performance that will take our audience for a few minutes out of their every day frantic activity and get them back by focusing all their senses on what really does matter right now...

The basic storyline of our performance will revolve about this wise metaphor from the master Bruce Lee. We will try to recreate in our audience a pleasant and calm feeling of mind emptiness.

Just like water, all what will happen in the scenario will become formless, shapeless.

Just like water.

“Because if you put water into a cup,
it becomes the cup.

If you put water into a bottle,
it becomes the bottle.

And if you put water into a teapot...
water becomes the teapot.”

Bruce Lee

Water is all about flow.

The cadence of liquid flowing is unique and unrivaled. It's one of Mother Nature's most hypnotizing elements.

Portraying that visual poetry in a performance without actually showing water is the challenge. Technology and human talent will be our tools.

The sinuous poetry of water flowing.
An incomparable choreography dictated by a higher authority called Nature, that will transport our audience into a unique state of mind.
